Bear this in mind

This is the busiest clothing store in Clarksburg—the reason is plain—men get more real clothes value here than elsewhere, and they know it. Ask any man who has bought and worn our clothes. Your selection here is as big, complete and well assorted, represented by every new fabric and style as stores that are asking big, fancy prices for practically the same clothes. There's not a particle of difference. You can buy any one of our suits and save five to eight dollars easy without sacrificing style or pattern.

our clothes before you buy—examine the make—fabric—style for yourself. The prices on all suits are ten and fifteen dollars. Our guarantee of absolute satisfaction accompanies every garment. BRISTOL, June 16.—Exquisitely beautiful and highly entertaining was the consummation of the exercises at the Methodist Episcopal church on Indian run, Sunday evening, June 11, in commemorating such a joyful occasion as Children's day. The whole effect was superlatively gorgeous amid the beautifully decorated interior and the picturesque surroundings, as the young folk, resplendent in all the glories of childhood, mounted the stage and performed their ceremonial rites. And while pure, innocent faces were turned Heavenward, and the youthful voices, "heavenly music, soft and sweet," rang out loud and clear upon the still night air, singing "Gloria in excelsis," the effect was far beyond all terrestrial comparison. The program was as follows:

Song—"Golden Harps."
 Bible reading—John Myers.
 Prayer—Millard H. Campbell.
 Song—"Then I Knew There Was Welcome for Me."
 Address of welcome—Miss Jennie Morris.

Welcome to the errand roll—By the school.

Recitation—Miss Ruth Campbell.

Song—By juvenile class.

Recitation—"Higher on Life's Ladder"—School.

Song—"The Fight is On"—Double quartet.

Recitation—"The Call"—School.

Song—"Hear the Macedonian Call"—School.

Closing song—"We Say Good Night."

Prof. L. D. Wentz, of Buckhannon, opened the services with a splendid discourse, and he later led in the vocal music. Miss Orpha Wolverton officiated at the organ.

Measle Epidemic Growing.

The epidemic of measles which was almost completely suppressed in this region has broken out anew—worse than ever. A large number of cases are reported from Cascara and Sedalla in Doddridge county, and at Marshville and Big Rock Camp creek, while there are still a few cases on Indian run and Grass run. From one to half a dozen have broken out while attending nearly every public gathering of any kind all over the country. This will tend to disseminate and promulgate the epidemic more and more. It seems, hypothetically speaking, that those who have measles, or know their time is ripe to take them, do not care who they may give them to—they keep right on going.

Takes Up Wool.

Julius C. Matthey, a successful merchant of Indian run, went to Big Isaac the first of the week to take up wool. He bought several thousand pounds, it is said.

Good Gas Well.

The second test well on the William Jarvis lease on Hall's run was drilled into the strata the last of the week by the Marsh Brothers' drilling contractors, who have a half interest in the lease, and have a gasser, making more than a million feet a day. More locations will likely be made at an early date. The Carter and Sheets Oil Company have the lease.
